

PVE Day at the Cardinals!

Come join us for the annual PVE day at the ballpark! All interested students grades K-6 can sing "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" on the field at Busch Stadium, during the 7th inning stretch, as our hometown favorites take on the Atlanta Braves! Funds raised will benefit the PVE music department. Per Cardinals policy, parents are not permitted to walk onto the field but Prairie View teachers and staff will supervise our students on the field at all times. If your younger student is unable to safely follow directions and stay with a large group, please wait to have them sing when they are older.

- ◆ Sunday, May 26, 2019 6:05 p.m.
- ◆ Tickets only $18.00 (face value $58.00)
- ◆ Family Fun Sunday: every ticket includes a free hot dog & soda!
- ◆ Prairie Farms will hand out ice cream before the game at the Ford family pavilion!
- ◆ Promotion: all children, will receive a St. Louis Cardinals tumbler cup.

All attendees must purchase a ticket to participate. Tickets are purchased by returning the slip below in a sealed envelope with your student's name to your classroom teacher with a check payable to Prairie View Elementary. All 300 seats are in seats 267-268 and handicapped accessibility is available upon request. Please do not send cash. Tickets may not be re-sold on StubHub or other third party sites. Tickets will be sent home Monday, May 20 with students unless otherwise requested. Tickets will be sold until all 300 are gone. Contact music teacher Katie Jones at (636) 625-2494 ext. 45251 or katherinejones@wsdr4.org with any questions. E-mail is preferred.
