We are still in need of Volunteers for the event. All the information about the event and how to sign up to volunteer can be found on this Flyer.

Please note, we are watching out for covid numbers closely. At this point, our numbers are great and we have experienced a very low positivity rate these past couple of weeks. Should we experience an increase similar to after the Halloween break, we will consider other options for the event.

Communication will be sent should this be the case.
